MEETING AGENDA (Tentative Minutes)

Thursday, April 2, 2015

3:10pm - 4:10pm

Welcome: Chrissy Hannemann-Chair 2014-2015

Attending: Terry Hill, Michelle Larsen, Matt King, Gay Ashton, Nita Wood, Michael Malouf, Kelley Friden,

- I. Questions/Corrections of minutes from March meeting: Approved

- II. Sign Trustlands Signature Form-Already Done.

- III. Discuss what it takes to be a good superintendent.
 1. Someone who is able to see the whole picture. We have a big district with a lot of diversity; the superintendent needs to understand each area and each circumstance.
 2. Administrative cost per student is lowest in state, yet we have high scores and grades, some of the highest. Superintendent needs to understand the budget, and be able to keep our district strong.
 3. The superintendent needs to understand things are going well, understand the vision and continue that vision. People look to Alpine District as a good example.
 4. Moral is high in our district. When moral is high you should look for someone who already knows the system, knows the culture and understands the vision.
 5. Needs to be someone who already knows Alpine School District and understands the students we have in our district.

6. Vern Henshaw was good at helping people see each other's views, even opposing views. The superintendent needs to be someone who can bring everyone together and find a middle ground without compromising district's vision or standards.
7. A good mediator. There are some contentious factions. We need someone who can handle this, someone who isn't reactionary. This person needs to be able to take a stand when he/she believes in something and knows it is best for the district.
8. We do have a big district, Mr. Henshaw made sure there was on-sight based leadership. He made sure that there was training to build capacity for these people to lead.
9. Alpine School District's vision is good, we need someone who knows this, and someone who can help continue in the same/right direction.
10. Someone who takes a personal interest in those who work for the district. When a teacher received an award he personally came to the school to congratulate her.
