

Red Ribbon Week

Monday

- Red Day: Wear red to show that you pledge to be drug free.
- (A4) Have students fill out a slip of paper indicating what makes them happy and pledging to be drug free. (These papers will be in your boxes later today and need to be returned to me or my box by B8 on Tuesday, so the student council can use them to create a mural of some sort.)

Tuesday

- Crazy Hair Day: Have crazy hair to show that you are brave and will stand out against drugs and stand up for being drug free.

Wednesday

- The student council is planning to send out a video to all of the students about being drug free.

Thursday

- Crazy Sock Day: Wear crazy socks to stomp out drugs.

Friday

- Stampede Pride Day: Wear your Lehi Junior High Stampede gear to Run as One in being drug free. (The student council had asked about Halloween costumes and there was a discussion about it, but the decision was reached to have it be a Stampede Pride Day instead in light of the year that we are having and as a result of Friday not actually being Halloween.)
