Council Bylaws

To promote ethical behavior and civil discourse each council member shall:

- Attend council meetings on time and prepared
- Make decisions with the needs of students as the main objective
- Listen to and value diverse opinions
- Be sure the opinions of those you represent are included in discussions
- Expect accountability and be prepared to be accountable
- Act with integrity

Council Formation and Leadership:

The council consists of the principal, up to 5 school employee(s), and up to 10 parent members. In any instance, there will always be two more parent members than employee members on the council.

The council will be led by a parent representative as chair, a parent or an employee representative as vice-chair and a parent or employee representative as secretary. The chair, vice-chair and secretary will be elected annually in the first council meeting of the year.

Council Meetings:

All meetings are open to the public and the public is welcome to attend.

The agenda of each upcoming meeting with draft minutes of the prior meeting will be made available to all council members at least one week in advance, and will be posted on the school website. The agenda will include the date, time and location of the meeting.

The chair conducts the meetings, makes assignments and requests reports on assignments. In the absence of the chair the vice-chair shall conduct meetings. The secretary will transcribe meeting minutes. In the event he/she is unable to do so, another council member will be appointed to take minutes in his/her place.

Minutes will be kept of all meetings, prepared in draft format for approval at the next scheduled meeting.

The council must have a quorum to vote. A quorum is equal to a majority of council members.

If a parent member is absent or unexcused from two consecutive meetings, the chair will notify the member that if the member does not attend the next meeting, the council will consider the seat vacant and the remaining parent members will appoint a parent to fill the unexpired term.

Rules of Order and Procedure:

Meetings shall be conducted and action taken according to very simplified rules of parliamentary procedure as required in 53G-7-1203(10). Council actions will be taken by motions and voting with votes and motions recorded in the minutes.

Simple Motions of Parliamentary Procedure

| Point of Order       | no                     | no               | no                 | ruled on by chair  |
| Previous Question    | yes                    | no               | no                 | 2/3                |
| Reconsider           | yes                    | yes              | no                 | majority           |
| Withdrawal of Motion | no                     | no               | no                 | majority           |

A motion (or an action to be taken by the council) is stated as a motion. Someone else on the council “seconds” the motion indicating that at least one other person on the council feels the motion is worthy of discussion. Then the council members may provide input and discussion as called upon by the chair. When discussion seems complete the chair may call for a vote on the motion. Or when a member of the council “calls the previous question” (a motion to end discussion of the first motion), a second is required. Without discussion the chair calls for a vote that must pass by 2/3. If the vote on the previous question fails, the council goes back to discussing the first motion. If the motion to call the previous question passes, the chair directly calls for a vote on the first motion. A vote to call the previous question is usually used to move business along.

- A tie vote is a lost vote.
- Most motions are main motions. A main motion may be amended.
- A point of order is offered when there is some question if procedure had been followed correctly.
- To stop debate or discussion on a motion and force the vote a member would say, “I move the previous question.” This requires a second and a 2/3 vote.
- Hasty action may be corrected by use of the motion to reconsider. This motion may be made only by one who voted on the prevailing side.
- A person who made the motion may withdraw the same motion.
